A day or two since the sixteen months old daughter of Mr. S. M. Richardson fell out of her little carriage and sustained painful injuries. She is suffering very much.

The Farmers' Alliance of Forestville and Neuse townships will have a big pic-nic at Forestville on the 13th inst. An address will be delivered by Hon. J. C. Scarborough.

A Raleigh tobacco man grasped CHRONICLE man's hand yesterday and said that tobacco was coming in quite lively and that it was selling for glorious prices. It always does in Raleigh.

The most prominent feature on the streets yesterday was the assembling of little groups of people here and there, and in every group there was a candidate for office. The Raleigh primaries will be held on Saturday night.

Mr. Furman Betts who was accidentally shot last Saturday evening is improving rapidly. There is a rumor to the effect that he will bring a suit for cers. damages against the city, but the report lacks full authentication.

Some parties were making inquire yesterday about the street lights. The people of that section are restless about it. Wonder if the Light company could | help the matter.

It was said yesterday that the union depot building committee was now waiting on a Raleigh contracting firm for a bid. As soon as it shall be secured, the committee will meet, and the contract awarded. Mr. Raleigh Firm, won't you please hurry up?
